GENERAL RULES

1) HORSES/PONIES

- a) All ridden animals must be four years old and over. The age of an animal shall be calculated from the 1st January in the year of its birth.
- b) An animal must be shown in the name under which it was originally registered with the Arab Horse Society, British Miniature Horse Society, British Show Horse Association (BSHA), British Show Pony Society, Coloured Horse and Pony Society, National Pony Society, Native Breed Stud Books, Sport Horse Breeding (GB), British Showjumping or any other recognised Official Identity Document issuing society.
- c) Mountain and Moorland ponies must be registered in the main body of their respective Breed Society Stud Books to compete in the Mountain and Moorland classes.
- d) A Horse may not be registered in more than one Type at the same time (e.g. as both a Hack and a Riding Horse) or in more than one Category at the same time (e.g. as both a Small Hack and a Large Hack). The Registration may be changed once in a season if the Horse has not qualified for Horse of the Year Show, in the current season.
- e) The identification of the animal must be in accordance with their Official Identity Document, at all times.
- f) Exhibitors are required by DEFRA to carry with them Official Identity Documents for all horses/ponies when competing or travelling. Competitors are reminded that it is a DEFRA requirement that the Official Identity Documents must be in the name of the legal owner. Spot checks may be carried out at certain shows.
- g) In the case of a lease agreement, the legal owner and lessee must be aware of and remain responsible for all past and present connections.
- h) Mares with a living foal born during the current season may not be shown in any ridden classes.

2) CLASS CONDUCT

- a) In the Final at HOYS, riders in Lead Rein and First Ridden classes will not be asked to dismount; the ponies will not be stripped; however they will still be assessed for conformation. At qualifying shows First Ridden ponies will be stripped unless on health and safety grounds it is unsafe to do so. This will be agreed at the discretion of the organiser and judge(s).

- b) No animal or rider may leave the ring without permission of the judge and ring steward. If an animal leaves the ring it may not re-enter.
- c) No rider may ride more than one animal in a class except for the jumping phase of the Working Hunter Horse class (please see specific class guidelines).
- d) All exhibits are to enter the arena on the same rein.
- e) Once a class has commenced, there shall be no change of rider, except in a Championship when a rider finds they have more than one exhibit eligible to compete. The substitute rider must be eligible for the class and the ring steward informed of the change of rider.
- f) A fall of animal or rider whilst mounted in any class will result in disqualification and they MUST leave the ring dismounted. If an animal gets loose from its handler whilst in the ring it may also result in disqualification at the judge's discretion.
- g) Animals displaying continued disobedience may, at the discretion of the judges, be disqualified.
- h) In all classes, all competitors must complete all phases, unless they have a dispensation card from their relevant society. Riders must be mounted for the presentation of rosettes.
- i) At Horse of the Year Show and qualifying shows, all Hunters, including Small Show Hunters and Ladies Side Saddle, are barred from entry in the Hack and Riding Horse classes at the same Show on the same day and vice versa.
- j) Mobile telephones, ear pieces and communication devices must not be used in the ring.
- k) Hors Concours (HC) entries are not permitted in any Horse of the Year Show Qualifiers.
- l) In all pony and junior classes, exhibits must not be galloped together. During the go round, ponies may gallop separately along one side or in their individual shows at the discretion of the judge/s.
- m) In the Championship of the Mountain and Moorland Working Hunter Ponies, the Junior 122cm section must be galloped separately.

3) EXHIBITORS

a) Membership Requirements

- i) Exhibitors must comply by the membership/registration requirements as set out in the class specific rules before the date of the show at which they attend the qualifier.
- ii) Exhibitors are responsible for ensuring that their membership makes them eligible to compete in HOYS qualifiers (e.g NPS Scotland Membership does not cover members to compete in HOYS qualifiers as detailed in the membership regulations.)

b) Exhibitor Conduct discretion of such Official disqualify that animal/s from being judged, in which case entry fees, prizes and charges will be forfeited. Competitors are reminded of their responsibility for the actions of others within their party.

- ix) Any exhibitor/competitor currently involved in a dispute of whatsoever nature with HOYS and/or Grandstand Media Limited then that person/s shall not be permitted to compete in HOYS qualifiers or at HOYS until the said dispute has been resolved.
- x) Any exhibitor/competitor currently involved in a dispute of whatsoever nature with a membership society may, at the discretion of GML, not be permitted to compete in HOYS qualifiers or at HOYS until the said dispute has been resolved.
- xi) Horse of the Year Show reserves the right to refuse an entry into any HOYS qualifier or HOYS from any person(s) who has been banned/disciplined by any showing society.

c) Age

- i) Riders and handlers of stallions must have obtained their 12th Birthday (small breeds) or 14th birthday (large breeds) before 1st January in the current year with the exception of the British Ridden Heavy Horses where riders of stallions must have obtained their 16th birthday before 1st January in the current year.

d) Riding Hats

- i) Correctly secured British Standard Skull Caps/Riding Hats that meet current approved BSI or European Safety Standards MUST be worn by riders 18 years and under, riders competing in Intermediate, Mountain and Moorland classes and riders in the jumping phase of the Working Hunter Horse/Pony.
- ii) Competitors are reminded that hats should have a plain cover and should be as per the guidelines set out in the specific class and/or society ruling; black, navy, blue, brown, grey or green as appropriate.
- iii) A rider whose hat comes off will be disqualified.
- iv) A rider, whose strap comes undone whilst competing must on penalty of disqualification, replace it or fasten it before continuing. The rider may stop without penalty to refasten the strap.

e) Dress

- i) All riders when competing must be suitably attired for the Class or Championship as per the guidelines set out in the specific class and/or society rulings. Please note gaiters may be worn however chaps are not permitted in any Class or Championship.

- vii) Competitors must only use tack or spurs permissible in the ring whilst on the showground and mounted.

(Lead Rein/First Ridden/Junior)

- i) In Lead Rein classes, handles on saddles are permitted.
- ii) In Lead Rein, First Ridden or Junior classes, reins must be of a normal length and not knotted together or stitched together into a short loop. In Lead Rein classes the reins must not be attached to the saddle and must run directly from the bit to the child's hands with no interruption.
- iii) In lead rein classes the lead rein must only be attached to the noseband.
- iv) All Lead Rein and First Ridden ponies must be shown in a suitable snaffle bridle only with the exception of Mountain and Moorland First Ridden when they may use any suitable bridle.

(Working Hunter (W.H.) /Working Hunter Pony (W.H.P.))

- i) In W.H. /W.H.P. classes the use of any nosebands and martingales are permitted.
- ii) Working Hunter classes for BOTH ponies and horses – No hind boots or bandages of any description are allowed in the collecting ring, warm-up area or in the actual class.

h) Shoeing

- i) If shod, only normal shaped shoes that do not cover the frog are permissible. Normal shaped open heeled plastic stick-on shoes are permissible. No bar shoes, pads or gel pads are allowed.

4) HORSE OF THE YEAR SHOW ENTRIES/ADMINISTRATION

- a) All entries for Horse of the Year Show and Horse of the Year Show qualifying rounds must be submitted through the Grandstand Online Entries System (<http://www.grandstandentries.com>) or on the standardised Horse of the Year Show paper entry form as applicable. Incomplete entry forms will be returned.
- b) Substitution or nomination entries are NOT permitted.
- c) The person who pays for the entry is then deemed as the owner of that entry.
- d) No entry will be accepted without the full fee. In the event of returned cheques or otherwise, an administration fee will be charged and the entry refused until full payment has been made. Failure to exhibit will entail forfeiture of entry fees and charges for stabling, passes and horsebox parking if appropriate.

- f) If an objection to a Height Certificate is submitted to the JMB, the horse must be presented for measurement within 20 working days. Any animal that is re-called for re-measurement by the JMB and does not attend the re-measurement as requested shall, at the discretion of Horse of the Year Show, be unable to compete at the final.
- g) If case (f) occurs it will be at the discretion of Horse of the Year Show whether qualification will be passed to the next eligible exhibit with the eligible placings.
- h) An animal which has qualified for Horse of the Year Show which subsequently measures out of the class for which it has qualified, will then be ineligible to compete at any Horse of the Year Show qualifiers for the remainder of that season and previous qualification for that year will be rescinded.
- i) If case (h) occurs the qualification will be passed to the next eligible exhibit with the eligible placings.
- j) The animal's height must fall within the height restrictions of the class on the day of competition.

6) JUDGING OF CLASSES

- a) Judges who judge HOYS qualifiers or at HOYS must abide by and comply with the HOYS Rules. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action being taken against the judge.
- b) In all cases the judge's decision is final.
- c) Ridden animals must NOT be escorted beyond the entrance to the ring.
- d) No person, including exhibitors, handlers or grooms should enter the ring at any time without the judges' permission. When permission is granted to enter the ring, a person must be suitably attired and wear a hat at all times.
- e) A class is deemed to have commenced when an animal enters the ring, if the judge is then present in the ring. If the judge is not present then the class shall commence when the judge enters the ring.
- f) Exhibits will not be allowed into the ring after the ponies/horses have been asked to trot.
- g) Exhibitors are under the jurisdiction of the judge(s) until asked to leave the line, after rosettes have been presented. Judges should consider behaviour at prize giving and should take action if appropriate.
- h) All ridden classes are to be judged using a marks system at Horse of the Year Show. The details of how marks are to be allocated can be found in the class specific information. Details on marking system used in qualifying rounds to be found in the class specific information.

- i) Marks must be recorded in ink; judges must not alter marks unless in extreme circumstances, if the marks are altered the judge MUST sign the mark sheet and initial the alteration.
- j) Mark Sheets must not be displayed until the Championship of the specific Class/es has been completed.
- k) Judges have the right to alter placings if an animal misbehaves after the marks have been awarded.
- l) If a mistake in the marks is discovered, even after dismissing a class, it MUST be corrected and any qualification/result amended.
- m) Where there are more than 26 entries forward, with the exception of the British Ridden Heavy Horse where if there are more than 20 entries forward, in a ridden class the judges should:
 - i) Split the class into sections according to the circumstances on the day.
 - ii) Each section is judged, and the marks are not to be displayed at this point and no rosettes awarded.
 - iii) For the final judging all horses/ponies should be invited back into the ring and lined up in any order. No further show will be given.
 - iv) The highest placed animal (not already qualified) from the first three or five (dependant on the specific class ruling) in the final judging will qualify for Horse of the Year Show.

7) JUDGES

a) Requirement of Judges

- i) Horse of the Year Show reserves the right in its absolute discretion to not appoint judges for Horse of the Year Show qualifiers and the Final.
- ii) Judges must make themselves fully conversant with the Rules and Recommendations of the Association/Society that they are members of, and Horse of the Year Show.
- iii) Judges who accept to judge at the Final of Horse of the Year Show will be asked specifically to adhere to Rules (i) and (ii). The other rules apply to both the Final and the qualifying shows.

Final (Horse of the Year Show)

Judges must not:

- i) Own, produce or exhibit any horse/pony for any Horse of the Year Show qualifiers leading to the Championship class he/she is judging at Horse of the Year Show in that year.
- ii) Judge, own, produce or exhibit any horse/pony in any competition taking place at Horse of the Year Show on the same day as he/she is judging.

Qualifying Shows and Final

- i) Judge any horse/pony under the ownership or production of any person for whom he/she, his/her partner or business partner has provided or obtained livery or had any other connection (business or otherwise) since 1st January of the preceding year. Stud fees and associated costs are exempt as per society guidelines.

- ii) Judge any horse/pony that is or has been owned, bred, produced, trained, competed or exhibited by him/her, immediate family, business partner or partner. (NB: Group teach-ins and demos are exempt)
 - iii) Judge any rider/handler who has shown a horse/pony owned, produced or trained by him/her since the 1st January of the preceding year. (NB: Group teach-ins and demos are exempt)
 - iv) Judge any horse/pony owned or produced by a person from whom the judge has purchased horses/ponies or to whom he/she sold horses/ponies since 1st January of the preceding year in which he/she is judging.
 - v) Undertake any judging appointment in the same season for open classes at an affiliated show, which are the same as the final which he/she is judging at Horse of the Year Show.
 - vi) Compete in any class and judge a HOYS qualifier or final at the same show, on the same day. This also includes immediate family.
- b) If a judge has reasonable grounds for belief that any section of the above rulings are being contravened then the judge must ask the rider/handler to leave the ring and the rider must withdraw.
- c) Judges may only accept to judge qualifying shows in accordance with the guidelines as set out in the class specific guidelines. Judges may judge an additional qualifier, if shows have been let down at short notice, providing the show asks the governing society in the first instance or Horse of the Year Show for approval.
- d) Judges will not ride ponies in Horse of the Year Show classes.
- e) In the event of a ride judge falling from an exhibit, they must not remount that exhibit in that class, that horse must be asked to leave the ring and will not be allowed to compete further in that class. In the event of a judge falling from an exhibit it is at that judge's discretion as to whether they feel fit to continue judging. In the event of the judge not being fit to continue riding, a replacement judge may be found, or competitors will be asked to do an individual show. The organisers retain the right to over-ride a decision should they think the judge is unfit to continue.
- f) It is strongly advised and considered good practise to carry this Rule Book when judging Horse of the Year Show qualifiers and championships. It is preferable to have a Rule Book for reference if any questions or problems on rules arise.
- g) It is the duty of all judges to understand and comply with these rules and to ensure they are fit and well to judge.
- h) Judges who fail to observe Horse of the Year Show Rules or whose conduct in any respect shall be, in the opinion of Horse of the Year Show, derogatory to the character or prejudicial to the interests of Horse of the Year Show, will be referred to the relevant Governing Society/Societies for action and will be dealt with in accordance their rules and disciplinary procedure, a copy of which will be lodged with the Horse of the Year Show office.

- i) Please note that all show secretaries running HOYS qualifiers will have access to a complete database of all judges accredited to judge HOYS qualifiers from all societies. Only judges listed on this database will be allowed to judge HOYS qualifiers.
- j) Any judge currently involved in an investigation of whatsoever nature with a membership society may, at the discretion of GML, not be permitted to judge in HOYS qualifiers or at HOYS until the investigation has been resolved.

8) DOPE TESTING

In common with the showing societies and other similar organisations, Grandstand Media Limited takes a very serious view of doping whether intentional or unintentional, having particular regard to the safety of people and the welfare of horses and/or ponies. All exhibitors/riders/owners/producers should be aware that feeds and preparations contain Prohibited Substances as do many foods.

It is the responsibility of the exhibitors/riders/owners/producers having custody of a pony, particularly in the 24 hours prior to a show, to ensure that nothing is fed, administered or applied to a pony that contains a prohibited substance. Ignorance is not an adequate defence.

Grandstand Media Limited is not authorised to give guidance, however follows the latest Equine Prohibited Substances List "EPSL" and where appropriate the guidance on threshold levels as published by Fédération Equestre Internationale ('FEI'). More information is available on the FEI website under "Clean Sport for Horses" <https://inside.fei.org/fei/cleansport/horses>. All substances on the list, whether indicated as 'Banned' or 'Controlled', are prohibited substances under the Horse of the Year Show rules.

- a) Any competing horse or pony and any animal present at the show (whether or not competing) will be liable to Dope Testing in accordance with the Rules and Dope Testing procedure as laid down by any Society or governing body. Should Horse of the Year Show, at any time, be advised by any society or governing body that a positive dope test has been carried out and recorded against an animal, Horse of the Year Show may impose any or all of the following:
 - i) The horse/pony concerned will be automatically disqualified and shall forfeit its placings, awards and prize money.
 - ii) The Owner and/or Producer of such Horse may be suspended from Horse of the Year Show for a period to be decided at GML discretion.
 - iii) At the organisers discretion Horse of the Year Show may impose a fine of up to £3,000 and order the Owner and/or Producer to bear all costs incurred.
- b) At Horse of the Year Show an official appointed by Horse of the Year Show shall determine which pony/horse(s) should be tested. A refusal to submit a horse/pony for dope testing shall constitute a breach of this Rule.
- c) If the objection shall be determined against the Objector, he shall also be liable to the Show for the amount of costs and expenses occasioned by the objection and the determination thereof, unless in the opinion of the Organisers who determine the objection there existed good and reasonable grounds for the objection, when they may order to the contrary.

- d) Any animal which provides a positive dope test will then be ineligible to compete at Horse of the Year Show. Any previous qualification for that year will be rescinded and any future qualification within that year will not stand.
- e) Any exhibitors/riders/owners/producers or pony or horse that is suspended for any period of time as a result of any disciplinary action taken by the society or governing body including but not limited to; the British Show Horse Association, Sport Horse Breeding of Great Britain, Coloured Horse and Pony Society, British Show Pony Society, National Pony Society may not be able to compete in any Horse of the Year Show qualifier during the period of any such suspension unless Grandstand Media Limited, in its absolute discretion, decides otherwise after making such investigations as it deems appropriate.

- (b) which constitutes or encourages conduct that would be in breach of Horse of the Year Show Rules, or constitutes a criminal offence, or which could give rise to civil liability, or otherwise be contrary to the laws of, or infringe the rights of any third party in the UK or any other country in the world.
- vi) Any breach of this policy may constitute a breach of the Horse of the Year Show Rules and could also lead to civil and/or criminal proceedings being brought against the HOYS Person or People who breach it.
- d) Horse of the Year Show accepts no liability for legal breaches by HOYS People on Social Media. Content published by those associated with Horse of the Year Show are fully accountable for their own actions. All HOYS People hereby indemnify Horse of the Year show in respect of any loss, liability, costs (including reasonable legal costs), damages or expenses it may suffer as a result of any breach of the terms of this Policy.

- e) HOYS People should be aware that Horse of the Year Show reserves the right to monitor intercept and review, without further notice, Social Media postings and activities that include references to it and/or its HOYS People or former HOYS People, to ensure that its rules and this Policy are being complied with and for legitimate purposes. All HOYS People consent to such monitoring by their agreeing to abide by all the rules, codes and policies in this Horse of the Year Show rule book. Horse of the Year Show may remove posts, threads and any other form of submissions from its own Social Media sites which are in breach of this Policy without explanation and the HOYS person responsible could be liable for disciplinary action.
- f) All HOYS People consent to the processing of their personal data by Horse of the Year Show in connection with any Social Media site or content relating to Horse of the Year Show. All data given upon entry of a Horse of the Year Show qualifier is stored on the Grandstand Entries System. For full policy details please visit www.grandstandentries.com.
- g) Horse of the Year Show may require HOYS persons to remove postings, comments or any other submissions made using social media that are deemed to be in breach of this Policy. Failure to comply with such a request may result in disciplinary action.
- h) Grandstand Media Limited will not accept any form of criticism or complaint posted on any Social Media before it has been through the proper channels.

10) DISCLOSURE UNDER LAW OR REGULATION

You should be aware that Horse of the Year Show will fully co-operate with any law enforcement authorities or court order requesting or directing Horse of the Year Show to disclose the identity or locate anyone posting any material in breach of this policy. If requested by the police or any other regulatory or government authority investigating suspected illegal activities, to provide your personal information, Horse of the Year Show is entitled to do so.

11) COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS PROCEDURE

- a) At any Horse of the Year Show qualifying round, any complaint or appeal pertaining to the result of the qualification, should be lodged with the Equestrian Manager of Grandstand Media Ltd either by email to showsecretary@hoys.co.uk, or by post to Grandstand Media Ltd, Stoneleigh Park, Kenilworth, Warwickshire, CV8 2LZ. All objections must be accompanied by a deposit of £100 and be received within 7 working days of the class.
- b) Horse of the Year Show is unable to accept objections involving Joint Measurement Board certificates.
- c) The objection shall be determined by the Appeals Committee, who may require and receive such evidence as they think fit and in particular may require the Objector or the Competitor in respect of which such objection was lodged to make a statutory declaration upon any question of fact concerning the matter of such objection. If the objection shall be determined against the Objector he/she shall also be liable to Grandstand Media Ltd. for the amount of costs and expenses occasioned by the objection and the determination thereof, unless in the opinion of Grandstand Media Ltd. who determine the objection there existed good and reasonable grounds for the objection, when they may order to the contrary.

- d) Grandstand Media Ltd. reserve the right to forward any evidence received in relation to an Objection to the relevant Governing Society/Societies as they see fit.
- e) At Horse of the Year Show Final any objection or protest is to be lodged by obtaining a printed Objection Form from the Equestrian Manager at the Show which must be completed by and signed by the Objector and delivered to the Equestrian Manager for Showing competitions accompanied by a deposit of £250.00 in cash within an hour after the results have been announced in the arena, in respect of which the objection is lodged.
- f) The objection shall be determined by the Appeals Committee who may require and receive such evidence as they think fit and in particular may require the Objector or the Competitor in respect of which such objection was lodged to make a statutory declaration upon any question of fact concerning the matter of such objection. If the objection shall be determined against the Objector he shall also be liable to the Show for the amount of costs and expenses occasioned by the objection and the determination thereof, unless in the opinion of the Organisers who determine the objection there existed good and reasonable grounds for the objection, when they may order to the contrary.

12) CLASS SPECIFIC RULES

A) MOUNTAIN & MOORLAND CLASSES

MOUNTAIN AND MOORLAND RIDDEN PONY OF THE YEAR

This competition is open to stallions, mares and geldings, four years old and over, to be registered in, and complying with the showing requirements of, the main body of their respective stud books. Partbreds are not eligible to compete.

These classes will be run in accordance with the general rules as set out in this rule book.

Additional Rules as follows:

- i) Ponies must not exceed the height limits as stipulated by the relevant Breed Societies.
- ii) Riders and Owners must be members of their respective Breed Society, NPS, UK Ponies & Horses, The Showing Register or BSPS.
- iii) Qualification will not pass below 3rd Place.
- iv) All Animals competing in Mountain and Moorland classes will be required to be in possession of a current/valid JMB height certificate within 28 days of the notification of qualification from HOYS or by the closing date of HOYS entries, whichever is sooner. Failure to do so may result in qualification of the pony being removed, at the discretion of GML.

Judging Guidelines:

- i) Judges for mixed classes may be selected from either the NPS Mixed M&M panel, TSR H M&M panel, or UK Horses & Ponies Gold and Platinum panels (Judges who are upgraded

E) SUPREME IN HAND HORSE/PONY OF THE YEAR

SUPREME IN HAND HORSE/PONY OF THE YEAR

The objective of the competition is to find the supreme light horse or pony in-hand champion of the year, irrespective of breed or type.

The Champion of each light horse/pony section will be eligible to compete, provided it has not already won a qualifying round in 2023.

If the Champion has already qualified or is ineligible, then the reserve champion of that section may come forward, provided it has not already qualified and is eligible. If both Champion and Reserve Champion have already qualified or are ineligible then the section will not be represented in this qualifying round.

All classes are open to Stallions, Yearlings, 2 year olds, 3 year olds, broodmares and barren mares only. Broodmares must be with foal at foot or a relevant certificate of pregnancy. Mares which have not yet foaled or that have lost their foals are eligible to enter with a relevant certificate of pregnancy for the following year. Foal champions are not eligible.

Each section represented must consist of a minimum of two classes and a Championship. There will be no direct entry into Supreme In-hand Championship Qualifier, all animals must be a section champion.

In the event of a horse/pony having been awarded more than one section Championship at this show, that horse/pony will represent both/all sections and the qualification will not pass down to the Reserve in the 2nd and subsequent sections.

Judges must not judge a Supreme In Hand Championship qualifier more than once every two years.

The Championship at Horse of the Year Show will be split into two sections as below:

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| Section A | Supreme In-Hand, exhibits up to and including 148cm |
| Section B | Supreme In-Hand, exhibits exceeding 148cm |
